Rural Development Initiatives is dedicated to helping rural communities thrive. We have worked with over 300 rural communities in seven states and British Columbia. Our award-winning services and programs enable communities and organizations to develop sound economic plans, strengthen community leadership and build relevant skills and structures that result in increased community vitality. We aim to train community leaders so that over time, the community has its own set of experts and networks for continued success. Established in 1991 to assist timber-dependent communities in Oregon, Rural Development Initiatives' work now addresses the full spectrum of rural issues, including economic challenges and social change. RDI is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization based in Oregon.
